

HAMBURG CONSERVATIVES ENDORSE MYCHAJLIW FOR SUPERVISOR

(Hamburg) - The Hamburg Conservative Committee endorsed Stefan I. Mychajliw Jr. for Supervisor on Tuesday February 18th, 2021. Mychajliw will appear on the November ballot for Hamburg Town Supervisor on two lines: Republican and Conservative.

“Taxpayers of all political parties will enthusiastically support my Reform Hamburg plan to hold the line on taxes, reduce government spending, enact term limits, fund police, increase transparency and end the ‘Friends and Family’ plan.”

“My anti-nepotism pledge will stop elitist families from soaking taxpayers by mooching off the government for multiple jobs. My wife is not on the Town payroll. Nor will she ever be. My sibling is not on multiple public payrolls. My sister is not on the Town Board. No ethical conflicts there. Unlike others, I was not bribed with a $100,000 a year patronage job with a $22,000 raise to run, sticking taxpayers with the bill.”

“I’m grateful to the Conservative party for their support. I look forward to enacting conservative fiscal policies that respects taxpayers and rejects greedy Friends and Family fiefdoms that only benefit the politically privileged few.”
